ADPP Preschool at Home Program Overview

Our NEW ADPP Preschool at Home Program is a virtual program that is designed to provide preschool students, ages 3-5, with a remote learning option that allows them to maintain their academic progress while staying connected and engaged with their peers.

Daily Zoom Sessions

Children will connect with their teacher for 45 minutes daily of live instruction. Live instruction will encompass interactive circle time and academic lessons based on our weekly themes. The program offers three daily ZOOM session times to choose from. Parents will select their preferred daily ZOOM time upon enrollment in the program and will be committed to their selected time each day. Below is a typical schedule for our 45 minute ZOOM call:

9:30-9:35: Welcome, Attendance

9:35-9:45: Circle time including, calendar, weather, letter of the week, number the the week

9:45-9:50: Book Reading and Comprehension

9:50-9:55: Music and Movement Activity

9:55-10:10: Interactive Activity (subject may vary but will include art activities, science experiments, and learning games)

10:10-10:15: Share Time and/or Wrap Up Discussion

This is a sample schedule based off of a 9:30 start time. Please note that time options may vary

Lesson Plans

Our teacher will provide a lesson plan for the week to cover all areas of development with activities related to our weekly theme. A list of materials needed for the various activities will be provided in advance.

Additional activities in line with the weekly theme will be introduced during the ZOOM call, including:

- Math and Literacy Activities
- Science Experiments
- Art Projects

Resources

Upon enrollment, parents will be given the link for our Google Classroom to access the weekly lesson plan and sign-ups for parent/teacher conferences, as well as pre-recorded story time, songs, and other lessons that can be viewed at your leisure. You will also have access to our resource library of educational websites, apps, and worksheets for independent work. Our teacher will be available during daily office hours from 2-3pm for parent/teacher one on one check-ins as requested.
